

Authentic Tzatziki sauce Recipe (Greek Yogurt, Cucumber Dip)

Author: Eli K. Giannopoulos. mygreekdish.com

Prep Time: 10 min Cook Time: 0 min Total Time: 10 minutes

Yield: 3 cups 1x Category: Dips Cuisine: Greek

Description The authentic Greek tzatziki sauce recipe.

1 cucumber, remove skin & seeds. grate on large holes of box grater
2 cloves of garlic, minced or grated
1/4 of a cup extra virgin olive oil
500g strained Greek yogurt (18 ounces) - greek yogurt doesn't need to be strained.
1-2 tbsps of red wine vinegar
a pinch of salt and freshly ground pepper - um

Instructions

... To prepare this authentic Greek tzatziki sauce recipe, remove the skin and the seeds of the cucumber and grate it into a large bowl. Season with salt and pepper and leave aside for 10 minutes.

1 Afterwards, wrap the grated cucumber in a towel and squeeze, in order to get rid of the excess water.

2 Assemble the tzatziki sauce. In a bowl, add the cucumber, the minced garlic and olive oil, the yogurt, 1-2 tbsps of red wine vinegar, a pinch of salt and blend, until the ingredients are combined.

Store the tzatziki sauce in the fridge and always serve cold.

(Alternatively, if you have a blender, pour in the olive oil and garlic and blend until combined. Then mix with the rest of the ingredients using a spoon. This will help the garlic to mix better with the rest of the ingredients).

3 Prepare this traditional tzatziki sauce for your friends and family and serve as a delicious dip with some warm pita breads aside, or as a sauce for Greek-style souvlaki. Enjoy!