

Can be prepared in 45 minutes or less.

YIELD: Serves 6

INGREDIENTS

For croutons

- 3 cups 1/2-inch cubes of fresh French or Italian bread
- 2 tablespoons olive oil

For dressing

- 2 large garlic cloves, chopped
- 6 flat anchovies, rinsed, patted dry, and chopped
- 2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
- 2 tablespoons mayonnaise
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/3 cup olive oil (preferably extra-virgin)
- 2 tablespoons water
- 1 head romaine lettuce, trimmed and torn into bite-size pieces
- 1/3 cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese

- sprinkle with garlic powder
- sprinkle with sea salt
- sprinkle with parmesan before baking

double dressing
make in blender
- use entire tin

1 T dijon
1 tsp Worcestershire

PREPARATION

Make croutons:

Preheat oven to 350°F. In a bowl toss bread cubes with oil and salt to taste and spread in a jelly-roll pan. Bake croutons in middle of oven until golden, 10 to 15 minutes.

Make dressing:

In a blender blend together at high speed garlic, anchovies, lemon juice, mayonnaise, and salt until smooth. With motor running add oil in a slow stream and blend until emulsified. Add water and blend dressing well.

In a large bowl toss romaine with dressing, Parmesan, croutons, and pepper to taste.