Yield: Makes 8 or more servings

Ingredients

- 2 cups drained well-cooked or canned chickpeas, liquid reserved large 1 lb can 13.02 (2 15oz cans)
- $1\frac{1}{2}$ cup tahini (sesame paste), optional, with some of its oil
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup extra-virgin olive oil, plus oil for drizzling
- $\frac{3}{4}$ cloves garlic, peeled, or to taste
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste 1 tspn salt
- 1 tablespoon ground cumin or paprika, or to taste, plus a sprinkling for garnish 2 tspns cumin
- Juice of 1 lemon, plus more as needed 6 tbsps = 1/3 cup
- Chopped fresh parsley leaves for garnish

Preparation

1. Put everything except the parsley in a food processor and begin to process; add the chickpea liquid or water as needed to allow the machine to produce a smooth puree.
2. Taste and adjust the seasoning (I often find I like to add much more lemon juice). Serve, drizzled with the olive oil and sprinkled with a bit more cumin or paprika and some parsley.
