By Alex Witchel | Time: An hour and a half | Yield: 60 to 80 biscotti

Ingredients

2 cups all-purpose flour 2 1/2

1 ~~3/4~~ cup plus 2 tablespoons cocoa powder

3/4 1 teaspoon salt (never kosher!)

1 teaspoon baking soda

- dash of cinnamon

1 ³/₄ cups lightly packed dark brown sugar

¹/₃ cup granulated sugar

2 ounces (4 tablespoons) butter, at room temperature

1 tablespoon vanilla extract

2 1 teaspoon double-strength brewed espresso powder

3 large eggs

7 ¹/₂ ounces (1 rounded cup) small milk chocolate chips

1 large egg, beaten and mixed with 1 tablespoon water, for egg wash

1 2 tablespoons raw sugar

Preparation

Step 1

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Line a 12- by 17-inch baking sheet with parchment paper or nonstick liner. Sift together the flour, cocoa, salt and baking soda; set aside.

Step 2

Using a heavy-duty electric mixer, cream together the brown sugar, granulated sugar and butter for 3 to 5 minutes at medium speed. Add vanilla extract and espresso. Mix for 10 seconds. Add eggs one at a time, mixing for 10 seconds at medium-low speed after each addition. Add sifted flour mixture and mix at low speed until dough comes together, 1 to 2 minutes. Add chocolate chips and mix just until chips are evenly incorporated, 15 to 20 seconds. (keep mixer on, not by hand)

Step 3

Transfer dough to a work surface and divide in two, shaping into balls. Form each ball into a log 1 ¹/₂ to 2 inches wide. Transfer logs to prepared baking sheet and flatten slightly. Brush tops of logs with egg wash and sprinkle each log with 1 tablespoon raw sugar. Bake until biscotti have spread, have a few cracks and bounce back slightly when pressed with fingertips, 30 to 40 minutes. Remove from oven and let cool completely, about 1 ¹/₂ hours. (35 min was perfect)

Step 4

Preheat oven to 325 degrees. Using a sharp serrated knife, cut logs into ¹/₄-inch to ¹/₂-inch slices. ~~Place each slice with a cut side down on a baking sheet lined with parchment paper or nonstick liner.~~ Bake until firm, crisp and slightly dry, about 15 minutes. Store in an airtight container at room temperature for up to three days, or freeze for up to three months.
