3 cups
1 cup

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to ~~300~~²⁵⁰F degrees. Line a large baking sheet with parchment paper or a silicone baking mat.
2. Toss the oats, almonds, cinnamon, and salt in a large bowl. Set aside. In a medium bowl, whisk the maple syrup and coconut oil together until combined. Whisk in the almond and vanilla extracts. Pour over the oats and toss to coat. Make sure all of the oats are moistened.
3. Spread onto the prepared baking sheet and bake for 45 minutes, stirring every 15 minutes. Allow granola to cool completely - the air will help the granola obtain a crunchy texture.
4. Make ahead tip: Granola is the perfect recipe to make ahead because it stays fresh for so long. Store this in an airtight container at room temperature for up to 3 weeks. You can also freeze it for up to 3 months.

Additional Notes:

1. I used honey roasted slivered almonds that I found at Trader Joe's - they're delicious! If you use honey roasted almonds, the granola will no longer be vegan.
